FOREWORD . . .

The students of Smithville High School have found much joy in the many activities which they have participated in during the past years. These activities served as accessories in making their lives a truly joyous one. Thus, we chose as our theme for the Fabrica, OUR "52" CAR. It, too, has to have accessories added to make it an up to date model.

The purpose of this book is not to instruct but to record, not to evaluate but to tell a story. It is interested in moods and events rather than ideas, thus, we have the pictures.

To those who wish to remember because of the joy and participation and their love for Smithville High School this book is affectionately inscribed. . .

DEDICATION

We, the class of '52 dedicate this 1952 Fabrica to Mr. Wayne B. Wheeler. His keen wit and leadership have been greatly appreciated by all of us. Also, his patience amid the diversified opinions will always linger in our memories. We, the Senior Class, wish him much joy and happiness in the future.

CLASS HISTORY

Into the halls of Smithville High came a group of bashful green freshmen. For some it was the second entrance into the hallowed halls, for they had already greeted these halls in the capacity of eighth graders. Others came from distant places of learning, including a great number from Madisonburg.

They acquired a class sponsor, Miss Porter, by name, who lent her able assistance to their endeavors.

They were ably initiated into the new high school life by the Sophomores, who were not merciful or sympathetic.

Some members of the class were on the baseball team, which captured the County championship in that year of 1949.

The duly elected officers were as follows:

President	Dick Hahn
Vice-President	Roger Johnson
Secretary	Ruth Donaldson
Treasurer	Don Dravenstott
Student Council	Sara Burkholder
	Gene Caskey
Reporter	Mary Jane Johnson
Sergeant at Arms	Carl Beichler

In addition the reserve cheerleaders were chosen by the school from their class. They were Mary Burkholder, Sara Burkholder, and Ruth Donaldson.

SOPHOMORES

At the start of the sophomore year they remembered the former year, and they themselves initiated the Freshmen. This and others were accomplished with the aid of their advisor, Miss Porter.

After much discussion they selected their class colors of blue and white. They ordered sweaters, which arrived in December for a Merry Christmas.

Mary Burkholder, Sara Burkholder, and Ruth Donaldson were again elected as reserve cheerleaders by the school.

The projects that year of 1950 were selling basketball schedule pencils and a bake sale.

The officers were:

President	Roger Johnson
Vice-President	Gene Caskey
Secretary	Ruth Donaldson
Treasurer	Steve Burington
Student Council	Sara Burkholder
	Dick Marthey
Reporter	Ruby Zimmerman
Sergeant at Arms	Tom Bowman

JUNIORS

As Juniors the class had a new sponsor, Mr. Wheeler.

One of their first actions as upper classmen was ordering rings. They were very much delighted when their purchases arrived.

A play named "We Shook the Family Tree" was given. It was a comedy directed by Mr. Krohe. With lots of practice and a good director the play came out a success.

They planned a Junior-Senior Banquet, which was a hard drain on their collective pocketbook, whereupon the treasurer pleaded loudly for the payment of dues. The banquet was held at Smithville Inn, on May 9. A Hawaiian atmosphere was provided by the waiters, waitresses and decorations.

During the year of 1951 they also had a carnival and a bake sale.

The officers were:

President	Don Dravenstott
Vice President	Gene Caskey
Secretary	Martha Miller
Treasurer	Steve Burington
Student Council	Ruth Donaldson
	Roger Johnson
Sergeant at Arms	Tom Bowman
Reporter	Glenn Zimmerly

SENIORS

First on the calendar for the Senior year was the class play "Just Ducky". It was directed by Mrs. Murray. The play was a comedy and was well accepted by the audience.

The senior class held a carnival and several bake sales to raise money for their Washington trip. They also sold refreshments at basketball games, plastic towels, vanilla, and Christmas Cards.

Leaders for the year of 1952 were:

President	Martha Miller
Vice President	Gene Caskey
Secretary	Mary Jane Johnson
Treasurer	Steve Burington
Student Council	Ruth Donaldson
	Dick Marthey
Watch Dog	Mary Burkholder
Social Chairmen	Sara Burkholder
	Gene Caskey

The Juniors gave a banquet in honor of the Seniors on April 26. The seniors thanked them heartily and then went their merry way to enjoy the later evening at various entertainments.

Baccalaureate services were held in the high school auditorium on May 18. Rev. DeMass was the speaker.

On the evening of May 26, 1952 forty young men and women graduated from Smithville High School. They were happy to graduate, but sad too that they would no longer be together. The speaker was very good and inspired them to make the best of their lives.

They left on their trip to Washington May 27 and returned May 31 with tired bodies and happy memories of the good times they had enjoyed together.

PROPHECY OF CLASS OF "52"

In a quiet suburb of Lincoln, Nebraska, stands a neat little house with a nice green lawn. This is the home of Ruth and Ronnie Fike. Ruth, the former Ruth Donaldson, and Ronnie, who is now head coach of a large high school in Lincoln, have just gotten word that a rich uncle has died and left them a lot of money. Immediately Ruth suggests a trip, in which they decide to hunt up their old classmates, those of the class of '52, of course.

Right away they call Claribel Walters, who is in the business of selling and planning trips for people. She works on a nation wide basis and is consulted by many famous people. She lays out a splendid trip, after she has done a lot of research to find out how far this trip must extend, in order to catch all '52ers.

According to the itinerary set up by our expert, Miss Walters, we journey first to Chicago and are entertained that evening by the Acorn String Ensemble, in which Pauline and Arlene Smucker are talented artists.

We also spend an evening in Chicago at a debate between Ivan Yoder and Wilfred Meyer. It has been rumored that this series of debates is the best since the famous Lincoln-Webster ones. Ivan and Willie are debating the subject Resolved:— That All Drips Should Stop Dripping.—

Our next stop is Weilersville, where we are treated like royalty by Nancy Kaufman, who is the Stewardess for our trip. We also see Harold "Joe" Blough at the Haley-Blough Store which is in connection with the railroad station there.

We are to go to Smithville and visit in the home of Mary and Sie Burkholder Schrock.

After catching up on a little bit of the news there, we go back to our old Alma Mater just for memorie's sake. As we enter the sacred halls of S.H.S., our ears are met with the melodious sounds of many voices blended in one great mass of choral music, under the expert and unfaltering direction of Sara Burkholder, as she prepares her students once more, for one of their well known and well loved operettas, which were famous even in the years that we were students at old Smithville High. And here, too, we find Don Moser has taken over the place once filled by Vern Sinclair. When we are about to leave the sacred halls of S. H. S., we find Stan Smucker backing up to the side door of the school, where he is about to unload the milk and ice cream for the school's use, which has come directly from his dairy.

A little farther north, we find that Martha Miller is now running a country children's home and taking care of many a "little angel with a dirty face."

After visiting Martha, we find ourselves moving northward toward Crile Veterans Hospital at Cleveland, where we find none other than Lucille Haley. She writes letters to sweethearts for the Handicapped Veterans, and entertains them with songs.

Then boarding the trains, we travel on to Niagara Falls for Ralph Woods, according to the newspapers, will today dare the powers that he can go over the falls in a "Barrel" of his own construction. Also, we learn that Peggy Wirth and Wynona Pfouts will be there at that time, on an anniversary trip. The anniversary is that of their double wedding.

As we find that Paul Snure is a professor of Physics at M. I. T., we head for Massachusetts to see how he is coming.

PROPHECY OF CLASS OF "52"

Our next stop is to be New York City. Don Bucher will meet us with his cadallic taxi and take us to the Waldorf Astoria Hotel, where we will meet Glenn Zimmerly, as manager. In the dining room, we are greeted by the host, Tom Bowman. Also, after our first fine meal at the hotel, we meet the dignified floor detective, Bob Conrad, who is chasing down some stolen towels.

In the evening, we will attend a stage show by Danny Sauders and Glenn Swisher, who have run Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis out of business.

No such trip, however, would be complete without visiting the capitol of our nation, so we head for Washington, D. C. Steve Burington is now Secretary of Treasury of the United States Government. Twila Conrad is his capable secretary. The treasury has made great increases, during the time that Steve has been in office.

We visit many great buildings in Washington, among them the National Art Gallery. Here we view the great masterpiece of Modern Art, done by Gene Caskey. He got his start in this field of art, when he spilled the paint one day.

When we visit W. W. V. A., we will see Ruby Zimmerman featured as their hillbilly star, who has wooed many a young man by her wonderful rendition of "Pistol Packin' Mama."

We are southward bound now, as we head for Florida. Here we find handsome debonair, Dick Marthy, lolling on a beach with many pretty debutantes near at hand. He is on one of his many extended vacations in the height of his glory.

We visit the winter quarters of the Ringling Brothers Barnum and Bailey Circus and here we see Bob Lonier, giving out with the encouraging yells of "Come to the Big Top." We go in to watch the aerialists and soon we recognize Melf-Uwe-Lorensen, who has returned to America from his homeland of Germany and taken up the life of the circus. Gymnastics was too calm for his "high spirited" blood.

There is a National Home Economics Convention in Florida and I being interested attend a session. Then I see Mary Ann Hostetler, who is a teacher of Home Economics and has brought her youthful girls to it.

Dick Kinney, who is a traveling salesman and who can relate many "Dagwood-door" experiences, we can only hope to meet on the train, as we start west.

We arrive in Tucson, Arizona, where we have a short layover and meet Rog Johnson, who is stepping off the train and is about to leave for Training Camp with the Cleveland Indians. Rog, as many of you know, is a pitcher and has by far outdone the once famous, Babe Ruth.

A little farther north in Arizona, we visit a great construction project. It is a bridge that spans the Colorado River and is made of plastic in its newest form. The plans for this were drawn up by Carl Gerig; Don Dravenstott is the Builder.

In Utah, we visit the Steiner Brothers dude ranch with its spacious and beautiful scenery. Mary Jane Johnson and her husband are here soaking in their health vitamins. We start off on horse back along the old bridle paths and the trail leads us up hill and down. My horse is no easy rider. "Ruth! Wake up! What do you think you're doing, riding a horse?", said Ronnie.

"What?—Well,— I guess I was. We had just passed Frank Carney's shack, where he works on his comic strip 'Leapin' Liana's Lingo. Wasn't it fun, Ronnie?", Ruth said.

"What?"

"Oh! I guess it was just a dream. But let's take a trip like that some day. When our ship comes in, of course." And she told him of the many adventures in her dream.

The mighty class of '54 began the school term with forty-three members.

We gave a "Welcoming" Party to the Freshman Class at the beginning of the year. Or rather it was the old traditional initiation.

One of the great events was the arrival of our class sweaters. They were gray with green emblems and are we ever proud to wear them.

Our class was represented in school activities including the reserve basketball team, speech activities, and music.

With the help of our sponsor, Mr. Taylor, we have had a very successful year and hope the next will be just as successful.

Our leaders during the year were as follows:

President	David King
Vice President	Janet Byler
Secretary	Emilie Miller
Treasurer	Phyllis Gresser
Student Council	Mary Lou Beaverson Cloyd Franks
Sgt. At Arms	Jim Wilson

In September the Freshman Class strolled through the portals of Smithville High with a new and long sought dignity. True, we were only green little Freshmen, but after all, wasn't that an improvement over last year when we were lowly eighth graders?

We called a meeting and selected these worthy characters to guide us through the year of 1951-1952.

President	Roger Ramseyer
Vice-President	Maxine Sheets
Secretary	Marion Falb
Treasurer	Jim Musser
Student Council	Bonnie Wagers
	Gene Kauffman

The Sophomores, sensing our growing superiority, took it upon themselves to initiate us. This rather gruelling affair took place in November. But the fun we had afterwards more than made up for it.

In December we had our first class party of the year in the roller skating rink at Madisonburg.

We are all looking forward to next year when, instead of being initiated, we initiate!

FIRST ROW: Rehm, Pitman, Yoder, Davis, Beck, Ratzel, Buzzard, Hershberber, Zimmerly, Byler.

SECOND ROW: Sargeant, Hass, Falb, Musser, Kaufman, Snoddy, Ramseyer, Sheets, Wagers, Miller, Hartzler, Troxell.

THIRD ROW: Mrs. Murray, Olson, Smith, Parker, Dickason, Stauffer, Mast, Mumaw, Gordon, Buchwalter, Hutchison, Drake, Estes, Snyder.

FIFTH ROW: Krabil, Murphy, Bozick, Hohenshil, Steiner, Wanio, Stuckey, Smucker, Brooks, Jolliff, Schrock, Mani, Singer.

EIGHTH GRADE

September fourth was a scary day for us new eighth graders at Smithville High School. But soon, Mr. Krohe, our advisor, had us out of any such position.

We chose from amongst our worthy classmates these officers:

President	Ward Mumaw
Vice President	Tom Gerig
Secretary, Treasurer	Doris Zook
Student Council	Janet Schrock
	Gary Miller
Class Reporter	Tom Gerig
Sgt. at Arms	Bob Wirth

FIRST ROW: Mr. Krohe, Smucker, C. Miller, G. Miller, Zook, Moomaw, Gerig, Schrock, Dicus, Dilyard.
SECOND ROW: Rohrer, Lytle, Shisler, E. Hartsough, H. Hartsough, Troxel, Morrison, Swisher, Stutzman, Zimmerly, Moore, Blosser.
THIRD ROW: Wiggins, Moomaw, Baab, Davis, Eberly, Hostetler, Morrison, Thut, Starn.
FOURTH ROW: Cook, Harrison, Johnson, Immel, Woods, Beaver, Smucker, Troyer, Fetter.

Our first excitement was a Halloween party which was held at Janet Lytle's. Then our interest went for our basketball team. It wasn't the best team, but it was one of the teams that tried to do their best. Those who served on the team were Ward Mumaw, Dick Beaver, Dexter Woods, Gerald Harrison, Charles Fetter, Charles Troyer, Robert Starn, Robert Wirth, and Raymond Hoff. Mr. Krohe was our coach and did a wonderful job. Janet Lytle, Janice Shisler, and Phylis Swisher were our Cheer-leaders. They also did a good job of backing the team, besides the nice work they did in cheerleading.

ACTIVITIES of '52

STUDENT COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: Mr. Berkey, Miller, Singer, Johnson, Feusier, Kaufman.
SECOND ROW: Donaldson, Franks, Beaverson, Marthey, Schrock, Wagers.

The Student Council represents the students' share in the government of the school and is under the guidance of our faculty advisor, Mr. Berkey. Mr. Berkey has helped us to solve many problems which faced the Council and we wish to thank him for his help. Each year a president is chosen by the whole student body to preside over the council. This council is made up of twelve members, two representatives from each class.

The Council contributes to the welfare of both students and teachers by various projects, and thus the Student Council of Smithville High School has found its place among the functioning organizations within the school.

However, the success of the Student Council is dependent upon the interest shown by those within Smithville High School.

Those who hold the high positions in the Council are:

President ..... Roger Johnson

MOSAIC

"Good, Better, Best.
Never let it rest,
'Til your good is better
And your better best."

If the Mosaic has somewhere within its unwritten constitution a motto, I think this would be the ideal motto. This year we've certainly been working for improvement and we feel we are making progress.

FIRST ROW: Yates, Moomaw, Fike, M. Miller, Indermuhle, Zimmerly, Musser, Feusier, Wagers.
SECOND ROW: Mr. Wheeler, Haley, Hostetler, Lytle, S. Burkholder, P. Smucker, Zimmerman, P. Miller, Mrs. Murray.
THIRD ROW: C. Miller, Airulla, M. Hostetler, Walters, Johnson, Gerig, M. Burkholder, A. Smucker.
FOURTH ROW: S. Smucker, Conrad, King, Hutchison, Sauder, Caskey, Singer.

Our outstanding officers this year were as follows:

Editor ..... Martha Miller
Asst. Editor ..... Galen Moomaw
Business Manager ..... Ronnie Fike
Asst. Manager ..... Darrell Indermuhle

Our advisors for the year, who deserve a lot of praise for their guidance and help, are Mrs. Murray and Mr. Wheeler. Thanks alot!

After much figuring we have decided that the Mosaic can only be as good as the material we put in it. And so, after we made that "discovery" we started to work on better content. Besides the regular "every issue reports" you are liable to find another interesting article or so sticking in there under a "queer" title.

We've had a wonderful, though busy, time working together this year, haven't we Mosaic Staff?

Friends, Speech is pertinent, Speech is progressive, Speech is profitable.

Our past year of forensic activities has included such activities as, Prince of Peace, Poetry Reading, Dramatic, Humorus, Oratory, Original Oratory, Extemporaneous Speaking and Debate. Two of our local winners in "Prince of Peace" went to district competition and one, to the state semi-finals. In the county individual events tournament we had one winner who went to state competition in the oratorical field, placing third in the state, in that field. Due to lack of experience we did not progress as far in this tournament as we hope those will who participate next year. Debate also suffered from lack of experience.

Numbered on our calendar this year also is the one-act play. The above items were of the most important activities in our program of Forensic events. We attended practice tournaments of various types to help us prepare for the arrival of the larger county tournaments.

But it was not all work and no play for the speech club this year for we attended a dramatization of Shakespeare's play, "Hamlet." Many of our regular monthly meetings were spent with much pleasure as we fearlessly put to use the talent we had gained from our speech work.

HOME ECONOMICS

We started the year by organizing at a party given by Mrs. Gerber, our advisor, in her home. These are our capable officers.

President	Martha Miller

March brought us together with a Leap Year party with the "Old Maids" inviting likely bachelors.

Our year was crowned by the annual Mother-Daughter banquet . . . "And it was good!" . . .

The operetta, "Ask The Professor" was given on May 2nd in the High School Auditorium.

The scene took place on the campus of a Girls' School on Commencement Day.

June and John Ainsworthy's Aunt wants to send Maryida O'Neal to finishing school, but Professor Breakeasy doesn't think she is worthy of such an honor. Mrs. O'Neal, who does the girls' laundry to send Red to college and to keep Maryida in night school, doesn't want it known that Maryida is Red's sister.

After a year has passed and Maryida has surprised everyone with her splendid work during the year, it is found that June and John don't really have an aunt. Maryida cannot go to the Commencement Ball because she has no chaperon. From here on things happen fast. The Professor is overcome with Mrs. O'Neal's beauty, the President forgives John and June and everything is normal once more.

"Variety is the spice of life," and taking this for our motto, we sang any song from "Irene, Goodnight", to "We Kneel to Pray".

It was a great disappointment to Miss Aufrance and all members of the Senior chorus when we weren't able to give our Christmas cantata because of the snow. However, since everyone liked the cantata we may use it again next year.

The next event was the spring show which we presented along with other musical groups. To end the year, we gave the operetta "Ask the Professor".

Music is an important activity in school and we all enjoyed being in the chorus, and having a director like Miss Aufrance. Thanks, Miss Aufrance!

The Freshman-Sophomore chorus is our secondary group of the singing voices of Smithville High. They participate in many activities, giving a helping hand to the Junior-Senior chorus whenever it is necessary. Under the direction of Miss Aufrance, the chorus has completed a successful year and will be useful material to help build next year's Junior-Senior chorus.

BAND

Every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday 8th period the sounds coming from the gym are produced by the band. If you would enter the gym, you would probably hear our instructor, Miss Aufrance, saying, "Not so loud drums", or "Slow down trumpets".

We all feel that the band has played an important part in the school activities this year. The Band members took a trip to Canton at the beginning of the year. At basketball time they played at some of the games and then did a good job of performing at the Spring Show.

Thanks a lot, Miss Aufrance, we certainly appreciate your help throughout this year.

ORCHESTRA

"Where is the music coming from?" That is the question a stranger would ask if he should enter the Smithville High School building during the 8th period on Tuesday and Thursday. The answer to that question is: the music comes from the gym and is made by the orchestra.

The public has heard this musical group play at the Junior Class Play, Spring Show, a P. T. A. meeting, and the operetta. The members of the orchestra practiced long and hard hours to be ready for these events and we hope you have appreciated their fine work.

Again, we wish to thank our instructor, Miss Aufrance, for her patience and help during the past year.

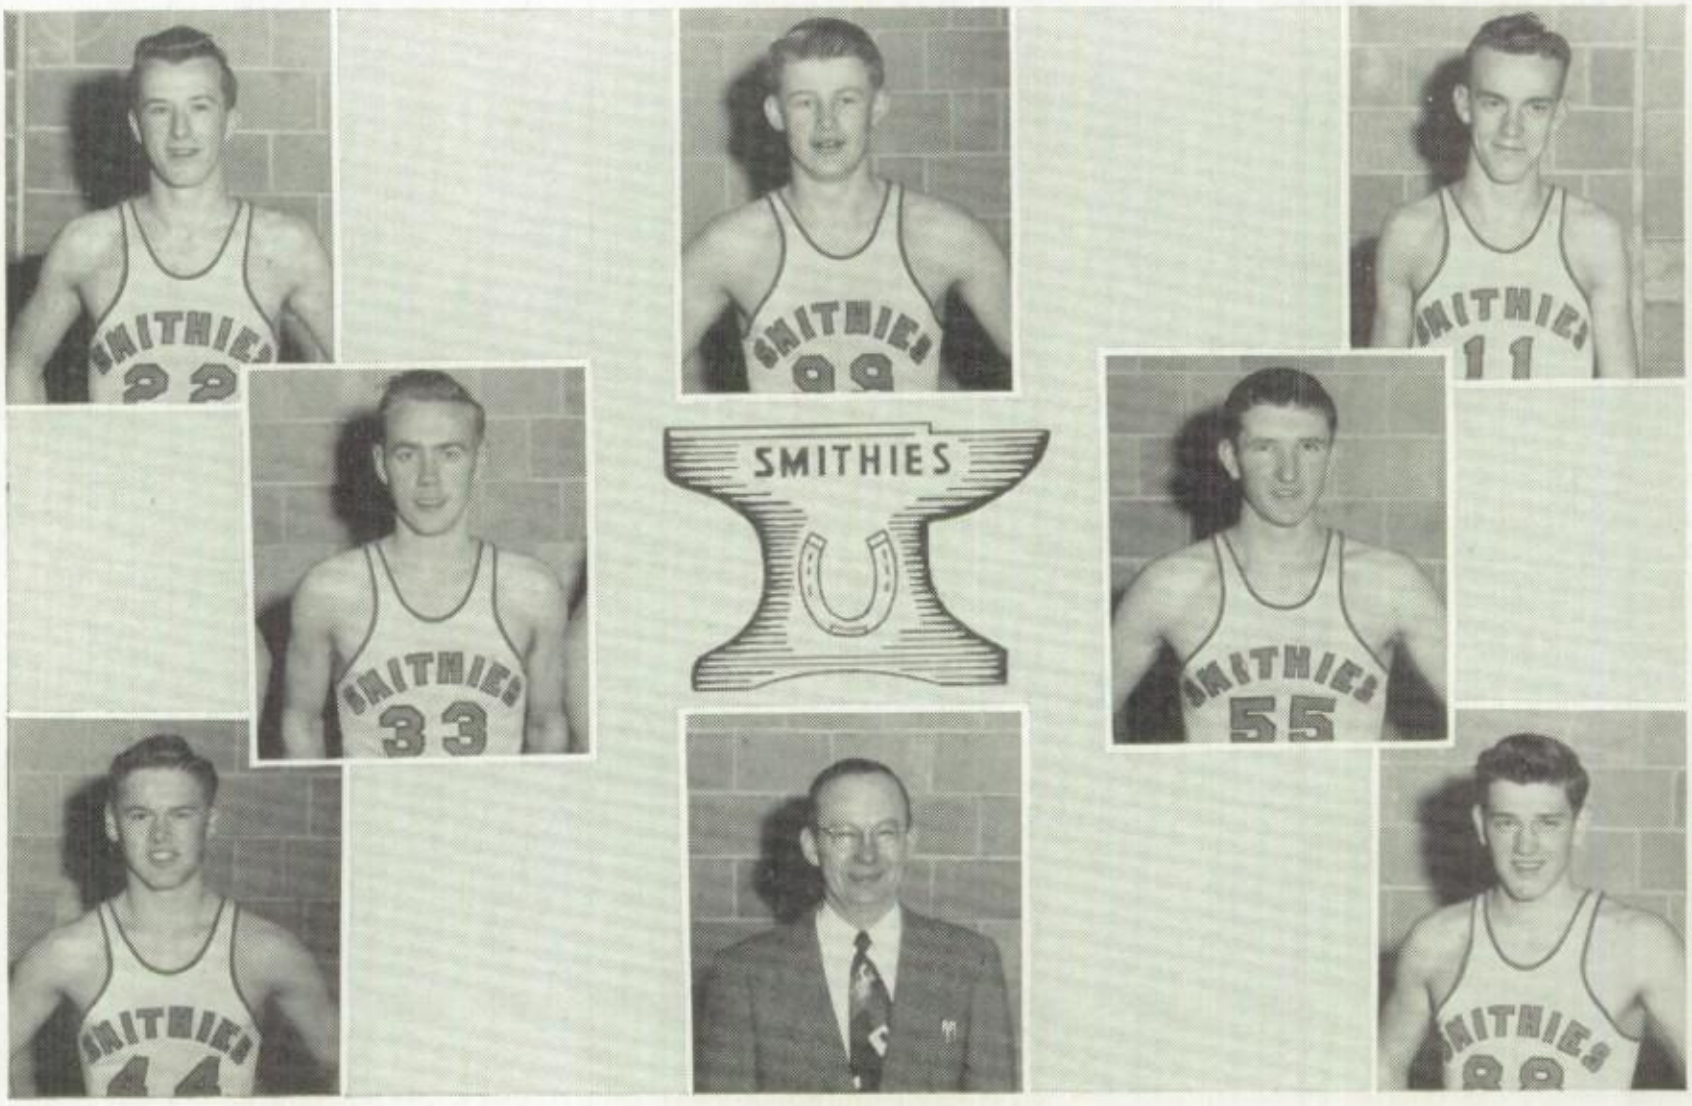
LETTERMEN

These seven Smithie lettermen, composed of five Seniors and two Juniors, were largely responsible for our successful basketball season. Naturally, the five Senior boys will be difficult to replace, but if the ones moving up will work as hard to excel as these boys did, another good season can be had next year.



FIRST ROW: Dravenstott, Mr. Berkey, Stuckey.
SECOND ROW: Carney, Johnson.
THIRD ROW: Fike, Buchwalter, Schrock.

Roger Johnson, the Smithie's tall pivot man, was selected on the first All County Team. He was our regular center for the past three seasons and will be a most difficult player to replace.

Frank Carney, the smallest player on the starting five, was also a three year letterman. Frank was a spectacular type of player and his cleverness more than made up for his size.

Ronnie Fike, changed from a forward to a guard position this year, developed into a very fine passer and ball handler. He set up many plays for his teammates and was always a constant threat to score himself.

Darrell Schrock was our first string guard substitute. Sie was always ready to do his part when called on and often found himself replacing a teammate when the game was in its most exciting moments.

Don Dravenstott was our fifth Senior letterman. He was our first string substitute forward. Like Sie, he, too, often found himself in an important spot when a teammate fouled out but Don never left his team mates down.

Bill Buchwalter will be moved up next year to replace Roger Johnson at center. His fine playing this year has indicated he will do a good job there. Bill picked a good time to play his greatest game by contributing 19 points when the Smithies defeated Northwestern in the semifinals of the County Tournament.

Gene Stuckey, our other Junior letterman, was a very important player on this year's varsity. His coolness in the back court helped to steady his team mates and worry the opponents. We are glad to have Gene and Bill back next year, as they will make a good nucleus to build around.

VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

FIRST ROW: Fike, Carney, Johnson, Buckwalter, Schrock, Dravenstott.
SECOND ROW: Mr. Berkey, Bishop, Singer, Stuckey, Indermuhle, Conrad, Wanio.

Basketball is considered an important extra curricular activity at Smithville. It is an important factor in creating school spirit and morals, and at the same time, its income makes possible the entire athletic program of the school.

Our varsity squad was made up of five Seniors and five Juniors. The team improved steadily during the season which was climaxed by their outstanding play during the tournament.

RESERVE BASKETBALL TEAM

Smithville's Reserve basketball team always occupies an important place in the season's plans. These boys are sometimes more carefully selected than the varsity players because any future success depends on their improvement and development.

This year's squad was composed of two Juniors, two Sophomores and six Freshmen from last years Junior High Championship team. The future looks good for these boys.

Smithville	40	Northwestern	28

We also wish to thank Stuckey and Buckwalter for the fine job they did as our coaches.

EIGHTH GRADE BASKETBALL TEAM

Our Eighth Grade basketball team was handicapped by a lack of experience. This is an annual problem at Smithville as there is no provision for the boys to get any experience before reaching the eighth grade. The new building will eliminate this handicap in the future.

CHEERLEADERS

M. Burkholder, Donaldson, S. Burkholder

We got the coach—
We got the team—
We got the pep—
We got the steam—

Yes, we have all this and a trio of excellent cheerleaders, too. Our cheerleaders for the past year were: Mary Burkholder, Ruth Donaldson, Sara Burkholder.

Although, they made this cheer to describe the team they were cheering to victory, I think it could well describe the cheerleaders themselves. These three cheerleaders have been doing this task for the last four years. They completed two years together as Reserve Cheerleaders, and then finished their high school life by cheering two years for the Varsity Team as Varsity Cheerleaders.

We will always remember them for their fine cheering, but especially we'll remember the "Farewell" assembly they gave to the team and the school. All in rhyme, it really set the year off!

Thanks, kids, for a good year and grand cheering!
